Chairman's Message

To our Award Recipients, their Parents, our Contributors and Distinguished Guests. Welcome to our Awards Gala.

Tonight we are here to celebrate the award recipients of our Foundation for 2010. We recognize them as this year's Best and Brightest Greek American Students, and we salute them with a deep sense of admiration and respect.

This, the 11th year of our Foundation, has been one of progress and accomplishments; therefore we have changed our award distribution philosophy. Tonight, we will be awarding 40 brilliant Greek American undergraduates $250,000 in scholarships based first on academic performance. Of these, 20 are selected on the basis of financial need and another 20 on merit only.

We have also changed the program of our event in which we are conducting our awards ceremony separately, in a theater seating format, followed by cocktails, then dinner in a grandeur ballroom, with dancing and entertainment. And since we are all here to admire and applaud our award recipients, we have reduced the speeches to the absolute minimum, thus allowing more time for the enjoyment of our guests.

It is with great pride that we hold our Awards Gala, as this is the culmination of a full year's work for us, and the finish point of all our award recipients, for the realization of their dream to get this award. It is also with pride that we have you, our sponsors and benefactors, standing behind us with your loyalty and support. To you we express our sincere thanks and deepest gratitude for helping us with this noble cause.

BUILDING A BETTER AMERICA THROUGH EDUCATION AND HELLENISM

The PanHellenic Scholarship Foundation is the only national Greek American organization in America that recognizes and honors exceptional college students of Hellenic descent with significant financial grants.

The PanHellenic Awards are offered to undergraduate students who are selected based, first and foremost, on academic merit, and include a Scholarship Award and induction into the PanHellenic Honors Society, as distinguished lifetime members.

It is the intention of the PanHellenic Scholarship Foundation to continue to offer $250,000 in Scholarship Awards to deserving Greek American students each and every year. In doing so, we offer twenty (20) Grant Awards of $10,000 each to students that apply on the basis of financial need, and twenty (20) Merit Awards of $2,500 each to students that apply on the basis of merit. Both groups must first meet the Foundation's strict academic criteria.

Scholastic achievement supported by financial assistance are the primary ingredients for success. Add to these the practice of Hellenic values and you complement the character of individuals with a strong sense of civic responsibility and leadership credentials. This way, we promote a future for a better America with advanced education and the principles of Hellenism.

We believe that scholastic achievement and the continued practice of Hellenic values and principles strengthen our civic fabric and deliver enlightened and engaged citizens.

WHO WE ARE

The PanHellenic Scholarship Foundation is an Illinois non-profit corporation with an IRS designation of 501(c)(3). It is administered by a Board of Directors and an Executive Committee (Officers).

A separate Advisory Board representing a range of professional disciplines provides to the Foundation guidance and support. The selection of Scholarship Award Recipients is made by an Academic Committee appointed by the Board of Directors. This Committee works independently and makes its decisions based on defined criteria. Members of the Board of Directors, Officers, the Advisory Board and employees of the Foundation may not serve on the Academic Committee.

LOU CANELLIS

Lou Canellis winds down the day with Chicagoans every night on FOX Chicago News at Nine. Canellis brings his enthusiasm and passion for sports Monday through Friday with his sports reports at 9 p.m. on FOX Chicago.

Since 1998, Lou has served as a college basketball play by play announcer for ESPN TV. He has also covered Super Bowls, World Series and has been part of ABC Radio's coverage of the 2000 Summer Olympics in Sidney and Westwood One's coverage of the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta.

Lou is well-known for his radio/TV post game coverage of the Bulls and his chats with Michael Jordan during the team's championship run in the 1990's. Now Lou is "living the dream," as a member of the Chicago Bears organization. Lou is the TV Host for all 5 of the TV shows the Bears own and produce. Lou anchors Bears Game Day Live and Bears Game Night Live on Fox Sunday mornings and Sunday nights, along with Bears Recap and Bears Blitz on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays on Comcast Sportsnet. This is a dream job for Canellis who's been going to Bears games since he was four years old, and has been a season ticket holder since he was six years old. Sweet Lou's expertise on the Bears can also be heard on the Roe Conn Show on WLS Radio, 890AM, Mondays and Fridays.

For 10 years, Lou Canellis was one of the special correspondents regularly appearing on 190 North, ABC 7's top-rated entertainment and lifestyle program airing Sunday nights. Lou's segments often previewed what's new on Chicago's restaurant and night life scene, giving viewers the best tables in town for a peek at great food, entertainment and people watching. He joined 190 North in 1999 and has received three Emmy Awards for his work on the program.

FRANCES FRAGOS TOWNSEND

Frances Fragos Townsend served as Assistant to President George W. Bush for Homeland Security and Counterterrorism and chaired the Homeland Security Council from May 2004 until January 2008. She previously served as Deputy Assistant to the President and Deputy National Security Advisor for Combating Terrorism from May 2003 to May 2004.

Most recently, Ms. Townsend provided consulting services and advice to corporate entities on Global Strategic Engagement and Risk as well as Crisis and Contingency planning. Ms. Townsend is a contributor for CNN and has regularly appeared on network and cable television as a counterterrorism, national and homeland security expert. She has received numerous awards for her public service accomplishments.

Prior to serving the President, Ms. Townsend was the first Assistant Commandant for Intelligence for the U. S. Coast Guard. Before that, Ms. Townsend spent 13 years at the U. S. Department of Justice under the administrations of President George H. W. Bush, President Bill Clinton and President George W. Bush. She served in a variety of senior positions including Counsel to the Attorney General for Intelligence Policy. Ms. Townsend began her prosecutorial career in 1985, serving as an Assistant District Attorney in Brooklyn, New York. In 1988, she joined the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York where she focused on international organized crime and white-collar crime cases. In 1991, she worked in the Office of the Attorney General to assist in establishing the newly created Office of International Programs, the predecessor to the Executive Office for National Security. In December 1993, she joined the Criminal Division where she served as Chief of Staff to the Assistant Attorney General and played a critical part in establishing the Division's international training and rule of law programs.

From November of 1995 to November of 1997, Ms. Townsend was Director of the Office of International Affairs in the Criminal Division, which serves as the U. S. Central Authority for extradition and mutual legal assistance, and works with the Department of State in the negotiation of international law enforcement treaties. In November of 1997, Ms. Townsend was appointed as Acting Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, where she oversaw international law enforcement and training matters in the Criminal Division, and acted as an advisor to the Attorney General and Deputy Attorney General on international law enforcement policy.

In March of 1998, Ms. Townsend was appointed Counsel for Intelligence Policy, managing matters related to national security policy and operations for the Department of Justice. In this capacity she headed the office of Intelligence Policy and Review, an office that provides legal advice and recommendations to the Attorney General and the Department of Justice regarding national security matters, reviews executive orders, directives and procedures relating to the intelligence community and approves certain intelligence-gathering activities, especially those matters related to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act.

PANHELLENIC SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

The PanHellenic Awards are made possible through the generosity of all of you, our contributors.

Your contributions and your presence here tonight confirm your partnership in our effort and your approval of both our mission and the means by which we pursue it.

On behalf of all our Award Recipients and everyone connected with this Foundation... we thank you.

The financial commitment of the Foundation is substantial and its success depends entirely on the contributions from the community. Twenty students with high scholastic achievement and documented financial need, each receive a cash grant of $10,000. Another twenty students receive a $2,500 merit award each, based solely on their scholastic achievements. Our intent is to offer a quarter of a million dollars or more every single year. The Foundation needs additional funds to meet its operating expenses. There are many ways to offer your support and they are all welcome.

CHRIS SARLAS ORCHESTRA

Over the past fifteen years, Chris Sarlas has successfully established his orchestra as one of the most popular, highly respected, and talented ensembles in Chicago. He and the select musicians of his versatile Orchestra consistently provide exceptional performances at Chicago weddings, private parties, dinner dances, and charity galas across the Midwest. A graduate of the DePaul University School of Music, Chris has steadily read the pulse of current popular music, making his band the preferred choice for all types of celebrations. Clients rave about his wholehearted attention to the finest musical and planning details of every event, his engaging personality, and his confident direction. The Chris Sarlas Orchestra is an ensemble ranging in size from ten to seventeen performers, featuring the city's most sought after and accomplished Chicago musicians. Distinctive music, a diverse repertoire, exceptional vocalists, and impeccable attention to detail make this orchestra the ideal choice for Chicago events.

Possessing a contemporary, passionate, and fiery R&B sound, exceptionally gifted vocalist Opal Staples can best be described as a fusion of Aretha Franklin, Alicia Keys, Jill Scott and Etta James. Her career has skyrocketed quickly, having recorded several projects with Toni Braxton, Ramsey Lewis, Anne Nesby, Crystal Lewis, and Kelly Price.

(Chris Sarlas Orchestra Continued)

Dynamic vocalist Voula Karahaliou has mastered the various styles encompassed in the world of Greek music. Her talent, experience, and passion for music have made her the most recognizable and requested female Greek singer in Chicago. Everyone who hears her sing experiences the passion, intensity, and soulfulness of her performance.

Singing all styles of rock and pop, Barry Lyons infuses performances with a level of energy and crowd interaction that gets everybody on their feet dancing. Barry's infectious enthusiasm and love for music shine through at every event.

Dick Fowler is a Chicago legend and treasure. This versatile performer can heat things up with a contemporary Barry White tune, then effortlessly switch gears and croon a Frank Sinatra classic. Dick's musical talents permeate every performance with the Chris Sarlas Orchestra. He creates a musical mood that people simply want to be near.

One of Chicago's most versatile and highly respected violinists, Carol Kalvonjian has been performing professionally for over fifteen years. Ms. Kalvonjian has performed with many orchestras, including the Metropolis Symphony, Chicago Jazz Philharmonic, Chicagoland Pops Orchestra and has appeared with many pop, jazz, and touring acts such as Andrea Bocelli, and others.

LEXY AND STEPHANY PRODROMOS

Lexy and Stephany Prodromos are now 16 and 13 years old but began singing in early childhood, taught by their father. The late world renowned voice teacher Shirlee Emmons in New York said of them when they were 13 and 11 respectively:

"I am frankly totally amazed. They are both completely outstanding in every way.... These are brilliant vocal talents. A native gift of high excellence and a level of musical ability that is startling. Their use of the foreign language is nothing less than stunning. If you consider that the four skills a singer must possess are vocal, musical, linguistic and dramatic, they have surpassed any guidelines one could name". They also study with legendary Metropolitan Opera Baritone Sherrill Milnes and his wife Opera Tampa Assistant Director Maria Zouves and have excelled in various classical singing competitions.

In 2010 Lexy won the "Junior Opera Idol" competition for Chicago area high school opera singers. They have appeared on CLTV, WGN radio, at US Cellular field singing the National Anthem for The White Sox, and have a regular show at Monastero's restaurant. This Spring they presented a charitable fundraising concert at Ravinia for Misericordia. They also arrange and write pop and rock music. Their first CD: "Something More...Forevermore" will be released next month.

Lexy and Stephany are also nationally ranked tennis players and compete in USTA tournaments in various states almost every weekend. They both speak Greek and are very proud of their heritage. They are thrilled to be a part of this evening's festivities.
